My name is Flora Padilla and I am a mother, grandmother, pastor, and an author. I married a man that physically, emotionally and mentally abused me. During this turbulent marriage, I was also trying to raise two small children, work full-time and financially support my household. Unexpectedly, I was injured on the job and lost the stability of having a steady income. This life-changing event shifted my path to my true calling. How did I become an overcomer against all odds? My book has the tools that I used to succeed, to be happy, blessed, victorious, and now an inspiration to others. I have spent my life "Mending Broken Hearts", because of my mended heart. Receive my story by faith.

The Witness of the Spirit. a Sermon Preached Before the University of Oxford. by Thomas Randolph, - THOMAS. RANDOLPH 2018-04-21

The 18th century was a wealth of knowledge, exploration and rapidly growing technology and expanding record-keeping made possible by advances in the printing press. In its determination to preserve the century of revolution, Gale initiated a revolution of its own: digitization of epic proportions to preserve these invaluable works in the largest archive of its kind. Now for the first time these high-quality digital copies of original 18th century manuscripts are available in print, making them highly accessible to libraries, undergraduate students, and independent scholars. The Age of Enlightenment profoundly enriched religious and philosophical understanding and continues to influence present-day thinking. Works collected here include masterpieces by David Hume, Immanuel Kant, and Jean-Jacques Rousseau, as well as religious sermons and moral debates on the issues of the day, such as the slave trade. The Age of Reason saw conflict between Protestantism and Catholicism transformed into one between faith and logic -- a debate that continues in the twenty-first century. ++++ The below data was compiled from

Warm Beer, Lousy Food - John S. Columbia
2009-12

The line began forming after eight o'clock. Sal, short and heavy-set, kept everyone busy. Neat, in a white shirt and sports jacket, with his grey fedora cocked to the side, his crooked grin made you smile. Without warning the heavy door would swing open and the waiters would come outside to join him. They were dressed in pajamas or prison garb, with hats and horns, and were there to warm up the crowd. Some in line expected this, others were shocked. The pink polka dot building should have been a warning. Complete strangers in line became chummy, exchanging stories they had heard; toilet seat covers to serve drinks on, microphones in the ladies room, toilet paper for napkins. Most had brought their friends there to be roasted. The line of people varied in age. They all dressed casually because they'd heard you could get a pie in the face or a squirt in the eye. The club's routines were blue in color, but harmless. If you were lucky you might see a "Balls for the Queen" or a "Singing beer." The price was always right for a good time and Warm Beer and Lousy Food was the place to be.
